BACKGROUND:

The Seminole County Sheriff's Office along with SafeHouse of Seminole and the State Attorneys Office is a participant on the Intimate Violence Enhanced Services Team, (InVEST). InVEST is a program that provides intensive prevention and protection services to domestic abuse victims identified as high risk for fatal attacks.

The Department of Children and Families through the Florida Coalition Against Domestic Violence (FCADV) has awarded the Seminole County Sheriff's Office $20,000 to support the InVEST program and provide training to law enforcement. This funding is a pass through to the Department of Children and Families from the US Dept. of Justice STOP Violence Against Women Formula Grant Program.

The Sheriff's Office requests that the $20,000 in revenues be appropriated into the Sheriff's operating account. These funds will be utilized to pay for law enforcement training and contracted professional services labor related to the InVEST program per the terms of the monetary award.
